Re: Letter of Reference

To Whom It May Concern:

We had received a mail solicitation from Carmine Nuzzi of NASC, outlining how our company may be due a refund on our utility bills. As a business owner we receive solicitations in the mail on a daily basis, the only difference was that NASC was not looking for our company to purchase anything, in fact they wanted to deliver money to our company!

I am glad we took NASC up on their offer to review our utility bills. In a span of about two weeks thanks to NASC efforts we received a refund check from our utility company. Not only did we receive a refund, we also received a reduction on our future electric charges. Without the expertise of NASC we would never had known that we were entitled to not only a refund but a reduction on our future utility bills.

So, it is with great pleasure to let you know the NASC team delivered. I was impressed by their efforts and results. I can easily and without hesitation recommend NASC services to any business, should they be approached by a NASC representative.

Sincerely,
